Made of high-quality materials, a plate with variable content.

A sliding steel-colored element allows you to choose the content, depending on the circumstances.

The product has been developed with attention to detail to make moving the content easy and pleasant. The sliding element "slides" smoothly because we make sure that each board consists of elements that fit together down to the millimeter.

The plaque has a noble steel color, and the plexi sides make it light and three-dimensional.

Standard content of the sign: on the left - empty, on the right - "meeting in progress, please do not disturb"
Custom plate content: +PLN 50. The content of the plate may be a simple message such as "open/closed", a company logo, or another message related to the activities of a given place.

Dimensions: 300x100mm
